DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicants' arguments, filed December 23, 2003, have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive. Rejections and/or objections not reiterated from previous office actions are hereby withdrawn. The following rejections and/or objections are either reiterated or newly applied. They constitute the complete set presently being applied to the instant application.
2. Claims 2-6, 8, and 9 are examined on the merits.
3. NON-FINAL OFFICE ACTION.

Sequence Compliance

4. This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 CFR § 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). See, for example, Figure 10. However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 CFR § 1.821 through 1.825 because Figure 10, contains a nucleic acid sequence with sequence length that is equal to or greater than 10 nucleic acid molecules and said sequence does not have SEQ ID Nos cited along with the sequence in the specification or Figure. Applicants are also reminded that SEQ ID Nos are not required in Figures per se, however, the corresponding SEQ ID Nos then are required in the Brief Description of the Drawings section in the specification. Applicants are also reminded that a CD-ROM sequence listing submission may replace the paper and computer readable form sequence listing copies. Applicant(s) are required to submit a new computer readable form sequence listing, a paper copy for the specification, statements under 37 CFR § 1.821(f) and (g), if there is a need to list additional sequences in the listing. Applicant(s) are given the same response time regarding this failure to comply as that set forth to respond to this office action. Failure to respond to this requirement may result in abandonment of the instant application or a notice of a failure to fully respond to this Office action.

Art Unit: 1631

OBJECTIONS

5. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The drawings are objected to because Figures 12-14, A and B, are not described in the Brief Description of the Drawings. Appropriate correction is required. A proposed drawing correction, corrected drawings, or amendment to the Brief Description of the Drawings is required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

6. Claims 2-6, 8, and 9 are objected to due to the inclusion of subject matter beyond the elected SEQ ID NOs. 79 and 131 as recited in Table 1, which has been non-elected due to a restriction requirement. Therefore, the non-elected subject matter has been withdrawn from consideration. It is advised that Applicant amend the claims to recite the elected SEQ ID NO(s) 79 and 131.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

7. Applicant argues that the Office has improperly withdrawn claims 7-9 from examination in the previous Office Action, mailed August 04, 2003. It is acknowledged that the Office has inadvertently included claims 8 and 9 in the claims that have been withdrawn in said previous Office Action. Claims 8 and 9 have been rejoined with claims 2-6; therefore, claims 2-6, 8, and 9 are examined on the merits.

8. However, claim 7 remains withdrawn due to claim 7 being directed “conditions of moderate stringency”. Claim 7 is not directed to the elected subject matter of “conditions of high stringency”.

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

CLAIM REJECTIONS - 35 U.S.C. § 112, SECOND PARAGRAPH

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

11. Claims 2-6, 8, and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

12. Specific to claim 2, step b, the critical limitation of “at least one RNA transcript of Table 1” causes the claims to be vague and indefinite because Table 1 recites cDNA sequences not RNA transcripts. Claims 3-6, 8, and 9 are rejected for being dependent from claim 2.

13. Claim 9 recites the limitation "said at least two RNA transcripts" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

LACK OF WRITTEN DESCRIPTION

1. Claims 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

2. The specification discloses cDNA sequences corresponding to SEQ ID NOs. 79 and 131. Claims 5 and 6 are directed to encompass variants of sequence listed in Table 1. None of these sequences meet the written description provision of 35 USC 112, first paragraph. The specification provides insufficient written description to support the genus encompassed by the claim.

Vas-Cath Inc. v. Mahurkar, 19 USPQ2d 1111, makes clear that "applicant must convey with reasonable clarity to those skilled in the art that, as of the filing date sought, he or she was in possession of the invention. The invention is, for purposes of the 'written description' inquiry, whatever is now claimed." (See page 1117.) The specification does not "clearly allow persons of ordinary skill in the art to recognize that [he or she] invented what is claimed." (See Vas-Cath at page 1116.)

3. With the exception of SEQ ID NOs. 79 and 131, the skilled artisan cannot envision the detailed chemical structure of the encompassed polynucleotides and/or proteins, regardless of the complexity or simplicity of the method of isolation. Adequate written description requires more than a mere statement that it is part of the invention and reference to a potential method for isolating it. See Fiers v. Revel, 25 USPQ2d 1601, 1606 (CAFC 1993) and Amgen Inc. V. Chugai Pharmaceutical Co. Ltd., 18 USPQ2d 1016. In Fiddes v. Baird, 30 USPQ2d 1481, 1483, claims directed to mammalian FGF's were found unpatentable due to lack of written description for the broad class. The specification provided only the bovine sequence.

Art Unit: 1631

University of California v. Eli Lilly and Co., 43 USPQ2d 1398, 1404, 1405 held that: ...To fulfill the written description requirement, a patent specification must describe an invention and do so in sufficient detail that one skilled in the art can clearly conclude that "the inventor invented the claimed invention." Lockwood v. American Airlines, Inc. , 107 F.3d 1565, 1572, 41 USPQ2d 1961, 1966 (1997); In re Gosteli , 872 F.2d 1008, 1012, 10 USPQ2d 1614, 1618 (Fed. Cir. 1989) (" [T]he description must clearly allow persons of ordinary skill in the art to recognize that [the inventor] invented what is claimed."). Thus, an applicant complies with the written description requirement "by describing the invention, with all its claimed limitations, not that which makes it obvious," and by using "such descriptive means as words, structures, figures, diagrams, formulas, etc., that set forth the claimed invention." Lockwood , 107 F.3d at 1572, 41 USPQ2d at 1966.

4. Therefore, only SEQ ID NOs. 79 and 131 but not the full breadth of the claims 5 and 6 meet the written description provision of 35 USC 112, first paragraph. The species specifically disclosed are not representative of the genus because the genus is highly variant. Applicant is reminded that Vas-Cath makes clear that the written description provision of 35 USC 112 is severable from its enablement provision. (See page 1115.)
